

ARKANSAS JUDICIARY

Published on Arkansas Judiciary (<https://courts.arkansas.gov>)

Rule 4-5. Failure To File Briefs In Civil Cases.

If the appellant's brief has not been filed in a civil case within the time allowed by Rule 4-4, the Court may dismiss the appeal and affirm the judgment or decree at cost to the appellant. When the appellee has failed to appear and file a brief, the Court may, when the case is called for submission, proceed and give judgment according to the requirements of the case.

Associated Court Rules:

Rules of the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals of the State of Arkansas

Group Title:

Article IV. Briefs

Source URL: <https://courts.arkansas.gov/rules-and-administrative-orders/court-rules/rule-4-5-failure-file-briefs-civil-cases>